Screen addiction can cause diabetes

Warns Dr. C.N. Manjunath of Jayadeva Institute

Dr. C.N. Manjunath of Jayadeva Institute addressing the gathering after releasing a book on diabetes in city this morning.

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (RKB&SSV)- Expressing grave concern over more and more people becoming diabetics, Dr. C.N. Manjunath, Director, Sri Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences and Research, Bengaluru, has said that 'screen addiction' has become the latest cause for people to contract this lifestyle disorder in the country.

He was speaking after releasing the book titled 'Sakkare Kayile - Prashne ? Uttara' (Diabetes - Question ? Answer) written by Dr. S.P. Yoganna of Suyog Hospital and published by Talukina Venkannaiah Smaraka Granthamale, Mysuru and District Kannada Sahitya Parishat, Mysuru, at Vijnana Bhavan in Manasagangothri here this morning.

Screen addiction is a group of behaviours that are negative, some negative outcomes that can happen when we use too much technology during our day. So, prolonged use of watching TV, video games, scrolling through social media, acts like a digital drug for our brain.

Stating that already 8 crore people in India are diabetics and another 8 crore are at the doorstep of contracting this disorder, Dr. Manjunath said that according to an estimate, India will have around 15 crore to 20 crore diabetics by 2040. Earlier, there was one diabetic among eight people but now we can find one among four, he observed.

Another rule enforcer turns rule breaker !

Kodagu Asst. Commr. paddles into troubled waters after going rafting with family when rafting is banned

Kushalnagar, Aug. 10 (RH & BCT)- Close on the heels of Mandya Tahsildar Chandrashekar S. Gali hosting a big fat birthday party for his son on Aug. 4 night at KRS, breaking the COVID protocol, now, another officer, who is supposed to be a law enforcer has broken the law, by going rafting along with his family members and other officials in River Cauvery at Dubare. Though river rafting has been banned at Dubare as per the orders passed by the State Government, Kodagu Assistant Commissioner had no qualms breaking that rule, a rule which he is supposed to enforce !

Assistant Commissioner Ishwar Kumar Khandu, who is also the Kodagu Tourism CEO, allegedly violated COVID-appropriate behaviour and protocol by taking part in river rafting in River Cauvery at Dubare along with his family members. Local residents have taken serious objection to the officer's move and the photos of the officer and his family in rafting gear have gone viral on social media.

Health Dept. asks Schools to submit list of unvaccinated

Bengaluru, Aug. 10- With the State Government all set to re-open Schools from Classes 9 to 12 on Aug. 23, the Additional Chief Secretary (Health) Jawaid Akhtar has asked Schools, private, aided and unaided, to submit lists of those unvaccinated parents, teachers and non-teaching staff. An order to this effect was issued on Aug. 7 to all institutions. Schools are required to collate these details and submit it to the Department so that it can facilitate vaccination for them ahead of the re-opening.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The sharp fluctuations in Karnataka's daily COVID caseload over the past couple of weeks hold an underlying message: that the graph is worrying and there's more to it than meets the eye. Experts who are closely studying the data warn that these are signs of the second wave tailing into the third. As a society, though, we are far too eager to believe the falling numbers and disregard warnings. And so, the masks have slipped to the chin, travel bags are out, socialising is on and people are on the move. While such behaviour borders on the reckless, it is the Government's relaxation of all restrictions that is more incredulous.

Cinema halls began screening shows two weeks ago and colleges opened last week to vaccinated students. And there are experts advocating the opening of schools as early as next week. While many around the country have cited the problems faced by the underprivileged, from access to online classes to lack of mid-day meals, a number of parents are worried about sending their unvaccinated children back to school even before the effect of the removal of restrictions can be assessed. The Technical Advisory Committee, to its credit, is taking serious note of the changing scenario, and it is hoped will advise caution to the Government. It would be prudent to retreat into a state of semi-lockdown and ramp up vaccination, so as to be better prepared for another wave. The public, on its part, should realise that it's not yet time to drop guard.

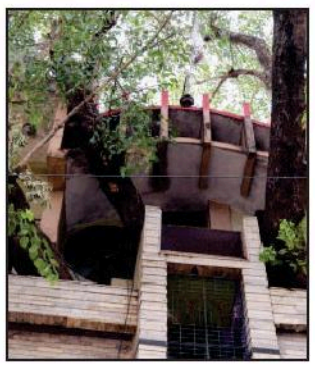
Family builds house around tree



Jabalpur: When the Kesharwani family in Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, decided to expand their home back in 1994, they pondered what to do about the giant fig tree growing in their garden. Rather than cut it down, they decided to build a four-storey house around it.

Today, the Kesharwanis' residence is one of the most stunning sights in Jabalpur – a concrete villa with a giant tree trunk growing through its multiple stories and thick branches coming out through the windows, walls and roof. Yogesh Kesharwani, whose parents built the house 25 years ago, said that the fig tree is about 150 years old but still blossoms into leaves and fruits every year. Even though they have to navigate around its thick trunk when moving through the house, the Kesharwanis have gotten used to it and even grown to consider it as a member of the family.

Man decorates his car with 4,600 toy cars

Kuala Lumpur: A Malaysian businessman has been turning heads in and around Kuala Lumpur ever since he decorated his prized Jaguar S-Type car with 4,600 colorful toy cars from his Hot Wheels collection.

The owner of the car is Datuk Seri Mahadi Badrul Zaman, the 34-year-old CEO of Financial Genius Group. He has been collecting Hot Wheels cars ever since he was 13 and is now the proud owner of a collection of around 5,000 cars, 4,600 of which are proudly displayed on his car.

Interestingly, the businessman isn't the first person to use toy cars as decorations. Back in 2008, James Ford also used thousands of toy cars to cover up his Ford Capri.

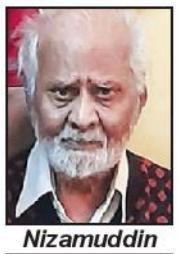
Old Memories & Olympics



Nizamuddin

Sir,

Every Year-of-the-Olympics, the same questions are posed across the world by people of Indian origin. Why is India, a country of 1.2 billion, so bad at the Olympics? ...And, when Fiji, a country of less than a million, with a majority of Indo-Fijians can win a gold at the Olympics !

With the above thinking hat, I refer back to an article titled "Reviving Old Memories" in Star of Mysore dated July 13, 2021, to reminisce on Mr. Nizamuddin's efforts to improve sports awareness in 1955-57, when he came in, as our teacher, with the halo of an all-India soccer player.

Till then the Government High School in Kolar did not have a physical fitness programme worth its name. Generally speaking, the Head Masters at such Schools were close to retirement and did not care for any sports; nor any money allocated for sports equipment; parent-teacher groups did not exist and parents were not asked to help either.

It is to the young Nizamuddin's credit that he started physical fitness routines for the students after class-hours, on his "Day-One" at the School, even though he was a teacher of History. Nizamuddin insisted on running exercises, stretching, jump-skip rope routines, floor exercises and so on, along with his passion for football practice. His positive comments and encouragement was what we needed so badly at the time, in spite of lack of any equipment for various sports.

I still remember my teacher Nizamuddin's cajoling to keep moving... and even when he saw me in the School corridors, he used to shout "why the hell are you walking?"... "I should be running"...he used to demand!

Today, if we had people like Mr. Nizamuddin all over the sports horizon of India, we would not be in such a bad shape at the world-wide of sports including the quadrennial Olympics!

Problems caused by Hebbal Lake to be brought to the notice of Minister

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (RKB&KS)- The problems caused by the rejuvenated Hebbal Lake to the farmers close to the lake will be brought to the notice of Minister S.T. Somashekar, who was previously Mysuru District in-Charge Minister. A decision in this regard was taken at the meeting of Hebbal Kere Ulisi Horata Samithi and farmers at Kumbarakoppal here recently.

Problems such as over-dampness of agricultural fields below the lake due to seepage of water and sewage water released to fields causing diseases to coconut trees were discussed.

Former MLC D. Madegowda, who is also the President of the Samithi, said the meeting was held to find out a permanent solution to the problems and added that a trench should be dug up below the lake area to prevent over-dampness. Problems of sewage water being released to fields should be brought to the notice of officials concerned and they should conduct a spot inspection, he added.

Madegowda said that if wastes and weeds are removed from the canal passing near the lake, the problem of over-dampness of agricultural fields could be solved and added that the issue should be brought to the notice of Minister Somashekar and other elected reps for early solution.

Vidyavardhaka Sangha President Gundappa Gowda, Chamaraja Constituency BJP Vice-President Kumar Gowda, farmers Patel Nagaraju, Shankar, Jayaram, Somanna, Dyavappa, Krishna, Raju, Borappa, Chandan and others attended the meeting.

Tigers brawl for territory

Safari goers capture fierce fight on camera at Nagarahole

Hunsur, Aug. 10 (Raghu&KS)- A video of two roaring tigers fighting each other fiercely over territory at Nagarahole Tiger Reserve has gone viral on social media, giving safari goers the spectacle of the mighty beasts clashing among themselves.

The fight between the two tigers took place yesterday near Marappana Kere at Nagarahole and the fight was witnessed by numerous tourists, who had gone on a safari. The tourists not only captured videos and photos on their cameras and mobile phones but also uploaded the same on various social media platforms.

The tigers, which fought fiercely for some time, went their ways later. Usually, when two tigers fight for territory, the result will usually end with the death of one of the tiger or both tigers getting injured seriously.

Wildlife experts say that tigers usually fight between themselves in connection with their territorial boundaries.

This is one of the rarest of the rare incidents where humans can spot tigers getting involved in such fierce fights among themselves and, this time, it was witnessed by the tourists who managed to capture the rare moments on camera.

Elephant calf found drowned

Madikeri, Aug. 10- An elephant was found drowned in a lake at a coffee estate in Marandoda village near Kakkabe, north Kodagu.

A herd of elephants was spotted on Sunday evening in the vicinity of the village and it is suspected that the elephant calf may have slipped and fallen into the lake when the herd went to the lake to drink water.

Marks of elephants trying to pull out the calf have been found at the lake bund. The lake is filled with water following rains and the elephant calf may have fallen into the lake accidentally and drowned, it is suspected.

Estate workers, who reported to work yesterday morning, found the calf drowned and informed the estate owner, who in turn informed the Forest officials. The Forest staff, who reached the spot, conducted mahazar and with the help of estate workers and villagers, fished out the body of the calf from the lake.

Post-mortem was conducted at the spot and the carcass was cremated.

Fighter electrocuted during film shooting near Ramanagar

Ramanagar, Aug. 10 - Tension prevailed near a resort close to Bidadi after a 35-year-old fighter was electrocuted during the shooting of Kannada film 'Love You Rachchu' yesterday.

The deceased has been identified as Vivek (35), a native of Tamil Nadu. An assistant fighter identified as Ranjith, has also been seriously injured.

The negligence of the film crew has been blamed for the mishap. The film has Ajay Rao and Rachita Ram in the lead roles and is being produced by Guru Deshpande. The shoot of the movie had resumed post second lockdown.

It is learnt that Vivek came in contact with the hi-tension power lines above and was electrocuted. Police have detained stunt master Vinod on charges of negligence and it is learnt that the film crew had not sought permission from the Police for the film shooting.

A senior Police officer said that the stunt was being shot near a private resort and Vivek, along with the stunt crew, was part of the fight scene. The crew used a metal rope to shoot the fight sequences and Vivek came in contact with a high tension wire and was electrocuted on the spot. Other crew members who noticed the incident started screaming and alerted Bidadi Police.

A crane was being used to shoot the fight scene and metal ropes were secured around Vivek, who was being lifted up by the crane.

As the shoot was taking place below the hi-tension power lines, the crane operator is said to have lifted the metal arm of the crane more than the prescribed height, resulting in the metal arm touching the power lines above and electrocuting Vivek.

Bidadi Police have taken Director Shankar Raj, Stunt Director Vinod, land owner Puttaramu and crane operator Muniswamy into custody for enquiry. Based on the complaint from deceased Vivek's family members, Bidadi Police have registered a case and are investigating.

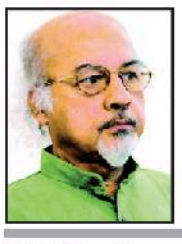
Those who giveth, those who taketh



Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

First impressions are of course misleading. When Savji Dholakia bought a bungalow in Mumbai's classy Worli Sea Face for Rs. 18 crore, the image of the "filthy rich" must have crossed many minds. But that image no doubt softened when further information about this rich man became available. Apparently he is an exceptional rich man. He shares his wealth with his employees. Gifts are routinely given by him to his staff; not naam-ke-wastay gifts, but gifts like houses and jewellery. In 2018, he gave brand new cars to 600 of his personnel.

Rich people with a generous mind are not a rarity in India. Published reports show that quite a few of them are inclined to give parts of their wealth to others.

Rajasree Birla is well-known as an overseer of meaningful Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives, focussing on education, healthcare and infrastructure.

Nita Ambani heads Reliance's CSR arm, the Reliance Foundation. Its records say that in just nine years, some 12 million people have benefited from its activities.

The Shiv Nadar Foundation donates hundreds of crores to promote education and healthcare and to give assistance to art and artists. The support provided by Tata Trusts to a wide range of activities is one of India's old and proud stories.

Azim Premji has become a legend in this field, especially in helping the rural poor. Premji is the only Indian in the list of "20 Most Generous People in The World" put out by an organisation called Business Insider. He is listed fourth with "Lifetime Donations: $ 8 billion" and "Generosity Index: 50 percent." (Number one in the list, Bill Gates, is credited with Lifetime Donations $ 27 billion and Generosity Index: 32 percent.)

There is a record named the EdelGive Hurun India Philanthropy List that keeps track of who gives how much. Its 2020 listing put Premji family first, followed by Shiv Nadar family, Mukesh Ambani family, Kumar Mangalam Birla family, Anil Agarwal family and Ajay Piramal family.

The general public does not even need listings like these to recognise who is doing what. Who doesn't know the value of contributions made by Sudha Murty (involved in orphanages, public hygiene, women's empowerment), Rohini Nilekani (who outlined a philosophy when she said "wealth comes with a huge responsibility"), Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw (visionary behind Biocon and its pioneering work in the bio-pharmaceutical field)?

There is of course no question of comparing what is done in India with what is done in America. These are very different economies. American billionaires do their charity chores in big ways.

Last year Jeff Bezos donated 10 billion dollars to launch what he called the Bezos Earth Fund. He also gave 100 million dollars to an organisation called Feeding America which supplies to more than 200 food banks. No wonder the US tops the list of the World's Most Generous Countries as compiled by the UK-based Charities Aid Foundation (This foundation prepares a World Giving Index every year based on annual surveys by Gallup.)

The Gates Foundation is still the world's largest private charitable organisation. It has distributed 50 billion dollars in grants since 1994. The biggest philanthropist in Forbes list is Warren Buffet who gave 14.7 billion dollars for charity. That was only 16 percent of his net worth.

History's ironic footnote is that America was once the battleground of "robber barons," businessmen who succeeded with unethical and unscrupulous practices. At one time Andrew Carnegie headed that list, but he underwent a transformation and became a supporter of workers' rights. One of the truisms for which he is remembered is: "The man who dies rich dies disgraced." His philosophy was that no man should become rich without enriching others. How many of our tycoons would agree?

Those who are born rich tend to think that it is their right. Those who are born poor take it as their kismat, their destiny. Change comes when both start thinking differently — when the rich think that wealth goes with responsibilities, and the poor realise that there are ways to tackle kismat. Destiny is not unalterable. Of all life forms, human beings alone have the ability to think and take decisions independently. Which means that humans are not entirely helpless in front of destiny; they can have a fair go at tackling it.

Spiritual leaders use spiritual phrases such as inner power and divine consciousness. Pay heed if you are spiritually inclined. If not, there is always Derek O'Brien who accused the Centre of legislating as if they were making papri chaat. That was unfair to papri chaat.

'Kollegal-Kerala Highway needs to be six-lane'

MP Pratap Simha meets Union Minister Nitin Gadkari on pending projects

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (BCT)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has urged Union Minister of Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari to develop the Kollegal to Kerala Highway from the existing four-lane to a six-lane one. National Highway 766 (NH-766) (previously NH-212) connects Kozhikode in Kerala with Kollegal in Karnataka.

Submitting a memorandum to the Union Minister in New Delhi, the MP said that the Highway was developed into a four-lane in 2016. "The developed section cannot hold the present traffic volume considering the construction of Multi Modal Logistic Park by the Container Corporation of India at Kadakola Industrial area," the MP noted.

Further, Simha said that the Mysore Airport at Mandakalli village, movement of industrial, tourist and commercial vehicles from Mysuru towards Ooty and Kozhikode calls for six-laning of the Highway which at present cannot effectively handle the traffic density, he said. The MP urged the Minister to instruct officers to initiate the preparations like engagement of DPR consultant for the project.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha is seen apprising Union Minister of Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari at New Delhi recently on various pending development projects.

LAND COMPENSATION DELAYED

The NH-212 (now NH-766) was developed by the State PWD National Highways wing in 2016 and was handed over to National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) in 2019 for toll collection. "But the stretch was given to NHAI with half-done/ incomplete land acquisition and civil work in Mysuru city limits and the land compensation for many of the survey numbers were not paid to beneficiaries till now," Pratap Simha said.

A revised estimate has been prepared by Karnataka and has been submitted to the Transport Ministry for approval which is still awaited. As such, land compensation and payment is pending for the completed civil and utility works. "The delay is leading to many legal complications and the revised estimates must be approved at the earliest," Pratap Simha said.

SERVICE ROAD

The MP also pitched for the construction of a service road from K. Kodihalli to Maddur town at 120.650 kms on the Bengaluru-Mysuru section of NH-275 that is being upgraded as a 10-lane Highway.

The development of the access control Highway with service roads on both sides is under progress and going at a good speed. But the villagers of K. Kodihalli, Agarliganadoddi and Hunasamaranadoddi and other villagers are facing the problem of service road discontinuity from K. Kodihalli to Maddur town. They need to use the existing road for 7 kms to join the under-construction service road. As such, the continuity of the service road for a length of 300 metres is essential, the MP told the Minister.

One more underpass provision has to be made at T.M. Hosur junction at 120.650 kms as the villagers have to travel 7.1 km towards Bengaluru and 2.6 km towards Mysuru side to reach the other side of the village, the MP told Nitin Gadkari.

Zoo, Mysore Palace to remain closed this weekend

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (KS)- Sri Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens (Mysuru Zoo) and Karanji Lake, which remained open today (the Zoo remains closed on all Tuesdays for weekly maintenance) instead of last Sunday, will remain closed on this Saturday and Sunday, following imposition of weekend curfew by the State Government, according to Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni.

Mysore Palace

Meanwhile, Mysore Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, speaking to Star of Mysore, said that as per the notification from the State Government regarding weekend curfew from Friday (Aug. 13) 9 pm till Monday (Aug. 16) 5 am, the Palace will remain closed and added that decision on opening the Palace before Aug. 16 depends on the Government order.

The doctor prescribed a minimum 40 minutes of walking for every person to keep this disorder at a bay. "If you start walking before doctor's advice, then it is 'morning walk'; walking in the evening after doctor's advice is 'warning walk'; walking with wife is 'darling walk'; walking with dog is 'dogging walk'. You do whatever you want but never miss walking daily, he advised.

"Hitherto, people were workaholic but a majority of them have become alcoholic. For such people, doing nothing is a big job. Now there are big houses with less people; more specialists, more new diseases; people are interested in exploring moon but not interested to know who lives in their neighbourhood", he stated.

Hailing Dr. Yoganna for writing an informative book with 500 questions and answers on diabetes, Dr. Manjunath said littérateurs are gifted with the art of writing but not for doctors. However, Dr. Yoganna is an exception as he has come out with a book which has 40 chapters.

"Every house must have this book which is like a glucometer. Diabetes and heart ailments are like two faces of a coin. People with heart ailments are sure to get diabetes after some years. Whereas diabetics are prone to heart attacks. In fact, diabetes is not a disease but disorder in body as pancreas stop producing insulin. While almost all parts of the body erode but not tongue. People must avoid food which tastes good for tongue. Diabetes cannot be cured but can be definitely controlled through diet, exercise and stress-free life," Dr. Manjunath opined.

Perils of low sugar

Continuing, Dr. Manjunath said that low sugar is quite dangerous and the symptoms are fatigue and sweating. People who experience these symptoms must eat chocolate or glucose biscuit. Men above 35 years of age and female above 40 years must get the whole body tested once in a year as a precaution. Early detection of disease will help in better treatment and recovery. People, before 55 years of age, will get diabetes because of their lifestyle sans exercise or diet, he said.

Dr. Manjunath said Corona has affected some parts of body of diabetics. The symptoms are loss of hair, weight loss and fatigue. Diabetes is one such disorder which can damage any part of the body, he added.

Prof. Mallepuram G. Venkatesh, former Vice-Chancellor, Sanskrit University, Dr. B.V. Vasanthkumar, Chairman, Kannada Sahitya Academy, Bengaluru, T.S. Chayapathi, Publisher, Talukina Venkannaiah Smaraka Granthamale and others were present.

MCC Council meeting

Soon as the meeting began, BJP Corporators raised the issue of lack of cleaning and maintenance of hygiene in the wards represented by them. They took the ruling combine to task for lack of Pourakarmikas and inadequate execution of works and wanted to know what the concerned MCC officials were doing in this regard, when their duty is to ensure that the city is kept clean.

But JD(S) and Congress Corporators, who took exception to the attitude of BJP Corporators, contended that the Pourakarmika problem existed in almost all wards of the city and they have appealed the Government to appoint adequate number of Pourakarmikas for proper maintenance of the city and the Government should be squarely blamed for any lack in civic works.BJP Corporator Shantamma argued that the BJP always stood for the welfare of Pourakarmikas and wanted to know why the officials were blaming the Pourakarmikas for their lapses.

Defending the Pourakarmikas saying they too are human beings and have done excellent work following the outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic last year, Shantamma said that even Prime Minister Narendra Modi has washed the feet of a Pourakarmika in a display of respect for them.

Strongly opposing Shantamma's remark, K.V. Sridhar of JD(S) reacted angrily saying that the Prime Minister does such things only for the sake of votes.

Opposing Sridhar's remark, BJP members stormed into the Well, raising slogans against the ruling combine. As a retort, the ruling JD(S) and Congress Corporators too stormed into the Well criticising the attitude of BJP Corporators. As the war of words between the ruling combine and the opposition BJP showed no signs of abating, Acting Mayor Anwar Baig adjourned the meeting till afternoon.

MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and other officials were present.

Rule breaker !

Questions are being raised on how laws are different when it comes to the common man and how the same law is twisted to accommodate the leisure trips of high-ranking officers.

They did not care for public protest!

Seeing the officers and family members rafting, a few tourists questioned as to how a banned activity was allowed while the same was denied to them. They also questioned how an officer, who is supposed to enforce rules could violate the same in full public view. However, these protests did not deter the officer, his family members and a few staff from entering the waters. After spending a few hours rafting and swimming, the group returned to Madikeri in their vehicles.

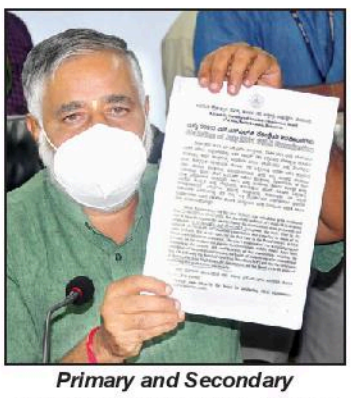
All but one pass in SSLC exam in State

Bengaluru / Mysuru, Aug.10 (KMS&DM)- In an all-time record, 99.99 percent students who appeared for SSLC (Secondary School Leaving Certificate) exam this year (2020-21) have passed.

Of the 8,71,443 students who appeared for the exam, all were deemed pass as announced by the Government that all students will be promoted, except for one student, who was caught impersonating during the exam which was held on July19 and July 22.

Announcing the results in the State capital on Monday afternoon, Primary and Secondary Education Minister B.C. Nagesh congratulated all the students. He said that provisional marks cards will be made available to students through their respective Schools.



Primary and Secondary Education Minister B.C. Nagesh

This year, the pattern of exam was changed due to the second wave of COVID-19 pandemic. Students had to attempt multiple choice questions for all six subjects with the first paper exam on Core subjects taking place on July 19 and the second paper on Languages on July 22.

One private candidate, who was caught while impersonating, fails

157 secure 625/ 625

As many as 157 students have secured 625 out of 625 marks in SSLC. Out of the 157 students, 125 were from private unaided Schools followed by 19 from Government and 13 from private aided Schools.

Highlighting the salient features of the exam this year, then Minister said that 100 percent boys and 99.99 percent girls have cleared the exam which took place at 4,885 centres across the State.

126 candidates were above 50 years

"126 candidates who appeared for the exam were above 50 years. As all the students have been promoted to the next class, the Board has awarded A grade to all the 34 educational districts this year. Nine percent of students were able to clear the exam as grace marks were awarded to them. The highest grace marks given for a subject was 28 and 13 students had got it," he pointed out and added that only six students had secured full marks (625/625) last year, when the exam was conducted with usual pattern.

Nagesh further said that 5,063 students abstained from the exam due to fear of COVID pandemic and these students have opted to appear for the exam scheduled in September.

However, the September exam will be considered as the first attempt for such students, he added. The Minister also said that Grade will be awarded this year based on the marks secured and the Grades are A+, A, B and C.

COVID to be micro-managed at Primary Health Centres: CM

'Centre to increase State vaccine share from 65 lakh to one crore per month'

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (RK&BCT)- After holding a review meeting with officials of the District at Zilla Panchayat Hall yesterday regarding COVID scenario, battle-readiness for third wave and also vaccination target, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai outlined a slew of measures to mitigate the effects of future waves of the pandemic. COVID management will shift to smaller geographies instead of a district-level management. This micro-management will be at the level of Primary Health Centres (PHCs) at all places where children between the age group of 6 and 16 would be screened.

Basavaraj Bommai

Children's health camp

"I have asked Deputy Commissioner of Mysuru Dr. Bagadi Gautham to hold a children's health camp in all Schools in each village and they will be checked for malnutrition and undergrowth. Such children will be provided nutritious food and supplementary vitamin boosters from the Women and Child Welfare Department and Health Department," the CM said.

Testing at PHCs

COVID Care Centres will be opened at village and Taluk level and all facilities would be provided to the respective administrations. Testing of children will also be done at the PHC level, he added. "We will ensure that immunity among children is high so that other diseases associated with COVID-19 and also COVID per se are effectively combated," he said.

The seven-day average Test Positivity Rate (TPR) in Mysuru was 1.19 percent and the last seven days had seen a total of 763 cases, besides 20 deaths. During the last one week, a total of 1.26 lakh people had been vaccinated in the district, the CM noted. Presently, 9,000 tests were being conducted in Mysuru district every day, he said.

One crore doses

On vaccination, the CM said that the Centre has assured to increase Karnataka's share of vaccines from 65 lakh to one crore per month. "I met the Union Health Minister in New Delhi and sought an increase in the allocation and the Minister assured me that Karnataka will receive one crore doses during August. Also, I requested the Health Minister to increase the allocation to 1.5 crore from September so that five lakh doses can be administered daily," he said.

Vaccination and oxygen

The CM instructed authorities in border districts to prioritise vaccination to people residing in border areas and inoculate the personnel manning the gates.

Of the 14 oxygen generators sanctioned to Mysuru, three were functional and six are likely to be commissioned soon. "I will ask the Health Commissioner in Bengaluru to immediately arrange for five more oxygen generators for Mysuru. Separate arrangements were also underway to ensure medical oxygen for ICUs. On its part, the District Administration has sought 20 ICU ventilators for children and they will be procured from Bengaluru and handed over to the DC.

Dasara festival

On Dasara celebrations, Bommai said that the decision would be taken in Bengaluru after ascertaining the prevailing situation in October and also in consultation with the COVID Task Force.

The CM's meeting was attended by Ministers S.T. Somashekar, Byrathi Basavaraj, V. Somanna, Murugesh Nirani, Dr. K. Sudhakar, Munirathna and K. Gopalaiah, MLAs G.T. Devegowda, Tanveer Sait, L. Nagendra and B. Harshavardhan MLCs Marithibbegowda and K.T. Srikantegowda along with Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, and SP R. Chetan.

Babus carry heavy files to CM but take them back!

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (RK&BCT)- It was touted as the first Departmental progress review meeting that would be chaired by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai at Abdul Nazeer Saab Hall inside ZP Office yesterday. Many Ministers were also scheduled to be a part of the meeting.

In their enthusiasm to present data before the CM, officials from all the Departments had brought heavy files to the venue but did not get a chance to earn brownie points from CM. They had to return with the files and dump the same on their desks.

All the officials, smartly dressed, had assembled at the venue four hours before the meeting started and all were eagerly waiting for the CM as this was not a meeting to be missed. They had been asked to carry all files so that none of the data was missed.

So heavy were the files that officers summoned their assistants too to carry them to the meeting hall. The files contained details on the progress achieved by their respective Departments and the babus were waiting for a volley of questions from the CM and the Ministers.

However, the CM and the Ministers came to ZP Office at 12.30 pm and held a closed-door meeting with District-level officers, MLAs and Heads of a couple of crucial Departments. But the CM did not meet other Departmental Heads.

At 2 pm, the officials were told that only media personnel must be present at Abdul Nazeer Saab Hall and all officials could go back. Realising that the CM was not going to meet them, they had to return to their respective chambers and sections disappointed.

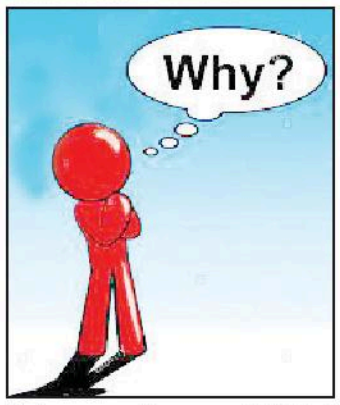
WORD OF THE DAY

Wherefore

Pronunciation: WAIR-for.



Meaning: For what reason or purpose : why; therefore.
Origin: In early English, a number of new words were formed by combining where with a preposition. In such words, where had the meaning of "what" or "which"—hence, wherein ("in what"), whereon ("on what"), and wherefore ("for what"). Although wherefore as an adverb is rarely used today, the noun form, meaning "an answer or statement giving an explanation," survives in the phrase "the whys and wherefores."
Example: "O Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou Romeo?" — William Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet, 1594-95.

THE ODD WORD

Wagonette

Carriage with one crosswise seat in front, two seats in back.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Waiting time

Meaning: A period of time from when action is requested to when it happens; the amount of time elapsed from when an order is placed until it is processed or despatched; the time interval from when a medical expert decides more treatment is necessary to the date when said procedure takes place.
Origin: The phrase is generally being used in its literal sense for ages – not an idiom. Therefore, there is no fun fact or history behind the origin of the phrase. Also, we have added and explained this phrase only at the request of our curious users.
Example: The waiting time for non-urgent surgery seems to be on the increase over the last five years.

Kerala man on a walking mission from Kerala to Kathmandu (Nepal)

BBA graduate from Thrissur, Moosa wants to create awareness among people on fuel, plastic

Mysuru, Aug. 10 (SPN&SSV)- Thirty-five-year-old Moosa has started walking from Kerala to Kathmandu (Nepal) on a mission to create awareness among people on usage of petrol, diesel and plastic. He passed through Mysuru yesterday.

The BBA graduate from Thrissur in Kerala, he started from his home town five days ago, and has arrived in Mysuru city yesterday. Moosa walks around 30-35 km daily. He starts walking at 6 am and continues till evening. "I am planning to go to Nepal via Bengaluru," he told SOM.

People must vow to save little quantity of fuel daily. The menace of plastic has become uncontrollable posing a major problem for the authorities concerned in its disposal. It is high time the citizens must give impetus on the minimal use of plastic in their daily routine. The use of vehicles even for a short distance has resulted rise in fuel prices. This is also impacting on the economy as well as polluting nature. "On my way, I will meet people especially youths at tea shops or other places and appeal them to protect environment by planting trees."

Moosa poses with Dr. R. Seetha of St. Philomena's College, Mysuru, who wished him a successful journey.

Moosa says he believes in contributing something for the society which has given everything for him. His aim is to create social awakening among people. His purpose of walking thousands of kilometres will be fruitful even if it inspires one or two persons. "At night, I sleep in a tent which I am carrying in by backpack and hit the road again the next day after completing the morning chorus," he added.

Dr. R. Seetha, Head, Department of Tamil, St. Philomena's College, Mysuru, who noticed Moosa walking near Sri Rama Mandira on Mysuru-Nanjangud Road in city last evening with a backpack pinned with a note stating 'Kerala to Nepal — Cross Country Walk,' stopped by and wished him a successful journey.
